

Guest Speaker – Matthew Robson on RYLA

- Not sure what to expect and admitted he rang his mum on the Saturday afternoon and told her he was coming home. When she rang him later in the week he told her he didn't want to come home.
- To get acquainted they performed an exercise where you throw a shoe over your shoulder, grab one from the pile and find its owner.
- Walter Dickman had everyone entranced. He seems to have boundless energy yet is in his 90's.
- Wednesday was outdoor day and included abseiling. Went OK on the 25m cliff but couldn't do the higher one. Was worried what the others would think, but this wasn't a problem as they were impressed that he tried.
- Has never met a better group of people before, they were just fantastic and have had several meetings since the camp.
- Stayed up all night on the Friday night as they didn't want to leave.
- Had a wonderful time and learnt from the experience. Has become more confident as evidenced by being able to give a presentation.
- Thanked Sharon & Warren and also the RC of Padstow for the opportunity to attend. Would recommend it to everyone.
- Matthew's only regret is that he can't go again.
