

GENERAL BUSINESS =====

Terry Pedder

The markets are on this weekend. Anyone who has any signs, please spread them around the district.

Barry Thompson

The search is on for a replacement Rotary International President Nominee. The 2007 Convention has been changed to Salt Lake City.

Garry Metcalfe

The speaker from last week, Arran Saunders, has given Garry a list of projects for which Disability Services Australia is looking for support. The McCartan's are happy to come and talk to the Club about fostering.

Allan Sweet

After Padstow on Parade, the Club now owns two helium cylinder regulators.

Kevin Bouffler – Attendance

- 27/32 or 84.37% (half a smile).

President Keri Sweet

- Speaker next week is Superintendent
- Thought for the week: (Socrates) The way to gain a good reputation is to endeavour to be what you desire to appear.

President Keri Sweet

Pat McGregor said hello.

Thanks to Keith for his help. The jewellery from the party has all arrived.

The presentations to the winners of the Padstow on Parade colouring competition will be made at Soul Pattinson pharmacy tomorrow (9/11).

7 people from the Club attended the Royal Flying Doctor Service dinner at Holroyd. Over $2,000 was raised.

An email has been received from the Bonds asking that numbers for the pantomime be finalised.

No answer has been received from the M7 re catering for the open day.

The District Information Night will be held at 6:30pm on the 25th of November at the Holiday Inn Conference Centre adjacent to the Rooty Hill RSL.

An email has been received from Kerry Knox offering condolences on the loss of Russell.

An email has been received from DG Bill Little re the RDU magazine delivery problems.

Kaye Townsend (Secretary)

Letter received from EHGTHS P&C re the Garden Fair, thanking the Club for both the assistance and for the donation given.

Ken McMillan (Treasurer)

Padstow on Parade has tentatively made $7,624 profit. (The tentative part is that $440 is under dispute.)

Keith Roffey (Club Administration)

The Race Day is 6th May. The deposit for 20 places has been paid.

Anyone wanting a place should see Keith – first come, best dressed.

The meet and greet roster has been set, with 3-4 members listed per month to do the meeting and greeting. The functions will include buying drinks for the guests.

Terry Martin (Vocational)

The guest speaker for next week is the Police Local Area Command Superintendent Dave Darcy.

Colin Duff (Community)

Padstow on Parade

- The washup meeting has been held. A report from the meeting will be produced.
- Next year's date has been set: 15 October 2006.
- Some of the profit from this year needs to be set aside as working capital for next year (suggest $5,000).

The Christmas Trailer

- A schedule of times that the trailer will be out has been set, if people could nominate times that they are able to sell tickets.
- Woolworths can only give us 6 days for ticket selling. These dates are early in our selling cycle, and only on Thursday and Saturday.
- Will be writing to Bunnings to see if we can get dates close to Christmas.
- Need to laminate the insurance Certificate of Currency.
- Need to get the photo of the trailer displayed on a card.

Barry McConville – (Membership)

New membership sub-committee.

There are 21 people on the list of possible new Rotarians.

Veronica Necyporuk (International)

- The Swim for Malaria
 - Will take place from 11am to 2pm on 26th November at Revesby Pool.
 - A charge of $1.40 for entry to the pool will be charged.
 - Need to write to the Council re getting the pool fees waived.
 - The Doug Frost swimming school can't assist.
 - Help is needed to marshal the swimmers.

Barry McConville

- The Swim for Malaria
 - Sponsor cards are now available.
 - 100 pamphlets are coming from RDU re the swim.
 - The certificates to be presented to the swimmers will also acknowledge a swimmer's sponsors.
 - Need a current First Aid holder present during the swim.
- The visit to Broens factory is on 22 November.
 - The address is 20 Williams Road, Ingleburn.
 - The plant makes, among other things, wings for the A380 Airbus.

Keri Sweet (for Joan Wells, Public Relations)

- The banner for Carols in the Park is up at Padstow Park.
- Joan Wells and Keith Roffey are going to the RDU Publicity Seminar on 13 November.
