

. D.G.Bill and Irene were there as well as all the Y.E.P. Committee. Unfortunately no photo of Tim Hurley at this stage but Tim is on his way to Sweden. We wish all students a great year overseas.

THE FULCRUM

Rotary Club of Padstow Inc.

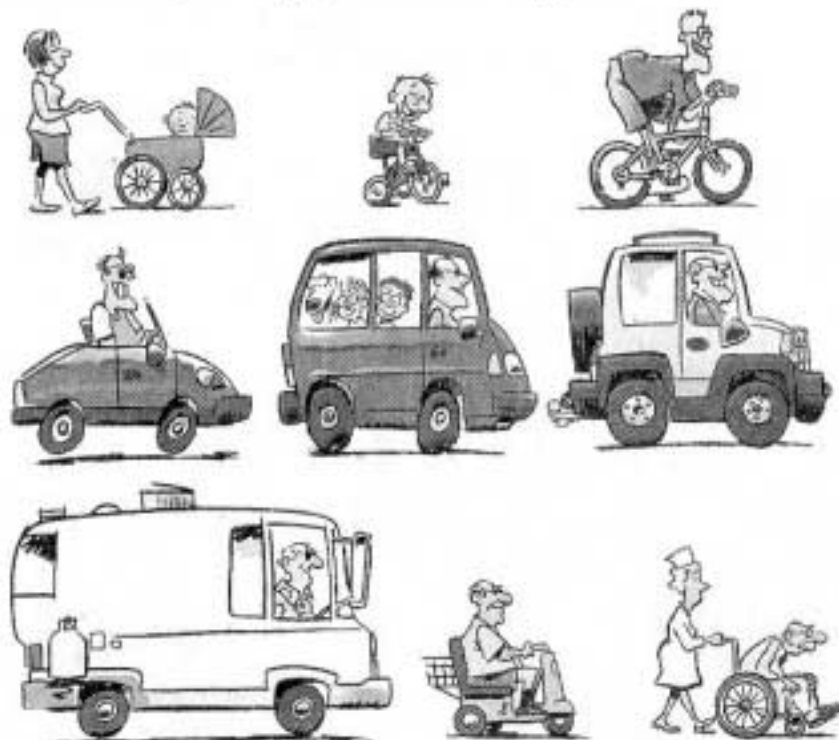

www.padstowrotary.org.au

SERVICE Above Self

Vol: 50 No: 30 Date: 24th January 2006

The Wheels of Life

Farewell to exchange students. Elizabeth Ashton is going to the Czech Republic and Gerard Reardon is going to Belgium

PROGRAMME

- 24/1 PACE CONCERT AT REVESBY HEIGHTS ALL WELCOME
- 26/1 Australia Day BBQ all helpers required

Chairman Terry Martin

Welcome to Tim Hurley (off to Sweden on Friday), and Laura Heywood (back from Brazil).

$300 has been received from Revesby Workers Club for Police Officer of the Year.

Thank you received from Matthew Talbot for the Rotary Overnight Kits.

Report from the Parramatta Mission.

Kaye Townsend (Secretary)

Semi-annual subs of $100 are currently due. Anyone requiring an invoice please see Kaye.

Ken McMillan (Treasurer)

A roster is circulating for Australia Day.

If anyone has any spare aprons, please return them as they are needed.

The Christmas trailer has been cleaned out. The barrel is inside, and all of the tickets have been bagged up. The padlock and keys are in the drawer beneath the trailer. A list of prize-winners is also with the trailer.

Keith Roffey (Club Administration)

The charge for an excellent size ad in the District Directory is $300.

The balance of accommodation charges for the Conference needs to be paid 21 days before the Conference.

Colin Duff (Community Service)

An application has been put in to District before Christmas for a community service award.

John Earls

The Bankstown Community Harmony Committee is looking for input.

Bowelscan kits will be available for pickup on 17/18 February. They will be distributed on 4th March.

Keith Roffey

The RYLA dinner last week was excellent. Naomi's contribution was appreciated – she spoke well, and also participated as one of the MC's.

Joan Wells

Paul, a young man with a disability, spoke about enjoying full participation, including abseiling.

Veronica Necyporuk

It's nice to see Tim before he heads off to Sweden on the Friday.

Laura looks fabulous – Brazil obviously agreed with her.

Elizabeth is not going to the Czech Republic on Friday because the Republic hasn't issued a visa yet. The plan is now for her to leave on the 15th of February.

Thanks to the host families who have been looking after Emma and Thibaud.

Emma will be shared between the Ashtons and the Daileys.

The Safari is on mid-May to mid-June, and will cost about $2,500.

Another $118 has been raised for Swim for Malaria, for a total of $382.50

Forms are now available for the 2007 year for outbounds.

Emma and Thibaud's wish list is being circulated.

Tim Hurley

Leaving at 4:55 pm on Friday (20th) on Singapore Airlines flight SQ222, if anyone would like to see him off.

His brother will set up a web page which will be linked to the Club site.

Kaye Townsend

The new Salvation Army hall at Panania will be opening at 9:30am on the 5th of February. Everyone is invited. The Club will be doing the barbecue on the day.

Michael Kenny

If possible, it would be good to re-schedule the National Park walk before the Conference.

Garry Metcalfe

The 31st of January will be Mai's last day.

Kevin Bouffler

26/33 or 78.79%.